

VOLUNTARY BLOOD DONATION CAMP

On 27th of September 2022 at 10.00 AM, A Voluntary Blood Donation Camp was organised by Red Ribbon Club (RRC), Darrang College in collaboration with National Service Scheme (NSS), Darrang College in the College auditorium, sponsored by Assam State Aids Control Society, Guwahati. It was a social welfare event where the volunteers of the NSS Unit of Darrang College enthusiastically assisted the organizing committee to make this event a success effortlessly. Many students, teachers & common people came out and participated in this social event actively. It is mandatory for the donors to get a quick health check up before the blood donation for which necessary arrangements were made by the whole team. Beds, weight machines were arranged, doctors were called, for the donors and refreshments were provided afterwards. Emergency kits were made available if needed for safety in cases like sickness or dizziness which could happen during the process. At Last, a vote of thanks was given to the active people and the volunteers of NSS unit were appreciated for their selfless service. With the co-operation of all the event turned out to be a great success.
