

Plantation Drive on World Environment Day (05/06/2024)

On 5th June, 2024 on the occasion of World Environment Day, the Darrang College Commerce Society (DCCS) successfully conducted a plantation drive at the Garh DouL Ecological Site, Parvati Nagar, Tezpur, Assam. The event involved over 30 students and along with some local resident planted around 100 saplings. The initiative aimed to enhance green cover, raise environmental awareness, and engage the community in sustainable practices, marking a significant boost to local ecological health. The objectives of the plantation Drive were to promote Environmental conservation, Awareness Generation and community Engagement. The faculty of the Department of Commerce along with the H.O.D. provided valuable support and guidance, ensuring that all activities were aligned with academic and environmental goals. Residents of Parvati Nagar were also invited to join, enhancing community involvement.

