

Counseling Programme

“How to face viva and present Dissertation work”

A training programme was conducted by Faculties of the Department of Zoology on 20/10/2022 to give them first-hand knowledge on the attitude and skills needed to prepare themselves for facing interview and viva in their future career prospects. Eight students from the PG department of Zoology were selected for the purpose and were given basic knowledge on the preparation of Dissertation work and facing viva interview.

