The programme was held with the aim of welcoming new volunteers and familiarizing them with the vision, mission, and activities of the National Service Scheme (NSS). The session highlighted the importance of the NSS motto, “Not Me, But You”, which inspires students to engage in selfless service and contribute to the welfare of society.

A total of 144 volunteers attended the programme, marking a highly enthusiastic response. The event began with a welcome address by the Programme Officer, Satyadip Gowala, followed by an introduction to NSS—its history, objectives, and role in fostering social responsibility. A brief presentation was also given, showcasing the various activities conducted by the NSS Unit such as cleanliness drives, awareness campaigns, plantation programmes, and blood donation camps. He encouraged the students to actively participate in NSS activities, emphasizing the role of youth in nation-building. Mr. Manash Jyoti Patgiri, also graced the event as the Resource Person, delivered an insightful session on the importance of youth engagement in community service and nation-building. His address inspired the students to work with dedication, empathy, and leadership qualities.

The Senior volunteers also shared their experiences, motivating the new batch to work with dedication and compassion. The session concluded with a vote of thanks and a call for teamwork and active involvement in future initiatives.

The orientation proved to be both informative and inspiring. It not only introduced the volunteers to their responsibilities but also created a sense of unity and purpose among them.
